

Do you have something to donate to the C. Elizabeth Boyd '33 Archives at Wilson College?

MISSION

The C. Elizabeth Boyd '33 Archives collects and preserves materials related to Wilson College and its alumnae/i.

WHAT TO DONATE

Personal Papers: Correspondence, diaries, scrapbooks, personal memoirs and reminiscences, speeches/lectures, professional files, biographical information, etc.

Photographs and Audiovisual Materials: Materials related to student life, buildings, performances, etc.

Memorabilia: Artifacts such as dinks, class rings, buttons, jewelry, dance cards, tradition-related items, etc.

Organization Records: Correspondence, planning documents, meeting minutes, reports, newsletters, membership records of Wilson College clubs or organizations

Publications: Posters, brochures, flyers, programs, handbooks, etc.

WE DO NOT COLLECT

It is not possible for the Institute to accept all materials that are offered. This may be due to duplication, condition, format, or subject areas in which we do not collect. Among the materials not accepted:

- Newspaper issues (Billboards)
- Yearbooks
- Textbooks
- Items in poor physical condition

CONTACT

If you have any of these materials or other items relating to Wilson College and you are considering donation, please contact Director of the Hankey Center, Amy Ensley, at 717-262-2049 or amy.ensley@wilson.edu.
