

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

- Permission to use or duplicate materials does not constitute authorization to publish them in part or in their entirety. A separate written request for permission to publish must be made in advance.
- All requests for permission to publish must be accompanied by a cover letter providing information on the nature of the publication. Permission to publish is granted for one-time use only, for the life of the project requested. Except for brief excerpts, material under copyright cannot be duplicated without the written permission of the copyright owner. The full responsibility for infringement is assumed by the individual requesting permission to publish.
- The researcher is warned that the use of libelous statements or the invasion of privacy is actionable under law. The researcher, by signing the Registration Form, agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Board of Trustees of Wilson College and the C. Elizabeth Boyd '33 Archives and its staff against all suits, claims, actions, and expenses arising out of his/her use of unpublished materials.

