

Release of HEERF II Emergency Grant Funds to Wilson College Account

You have been identified as an individual who qualifies for emergency grant assistance through Federal Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds II (HEERF). You may elect to use this emergency grant assistance towards your Wilson College student account balance.

Please login to <https://selfservice.wilson.edu/Student> (<https://selfservice.wilson.edu/Student>) to review your outstanding balance. If you consent to apply HEERF II funds toward your Wilson College account balance, the Business Office will apply the funds towards the oldest balance on your account. If the amount of your emergency grant exceeds the balance due on your student account, you will receive a refund check for the difference. You are not obligated to use this emergency grant assistance towards your Wilson College account.

* This form will record your name, please fill your name.

1. Do you wish to apply the funds directly to your Wilson College account as a payment towards an outstanding balance?
