WOMEN’S HISTORY HIGH SCHOOL ESSAY CONTEST

Sponsored by Wilson College

Wilson College is sponsoring the Third Annual Essay Contest celebrating National Women’s History Month in March. This contest is open to students (female and male) in grades 9-12. Entry deadline is Friday, February 7, 2014. Winners will be announced Monday, March 3, 2014 and invited to an awards ceremony at Wilson College as part of the National Women’s History Month celebration. The essay must focus on a significant person, event or movement in women’s history and analyze the relevance or influence today.

FIRST PRIZE: $150.
SECOND PRIZE: $100. THIRD PRIZE: $50.

CONTEST RULES:

- Essay can be submitted electronically or by mail (if sent by regular mail, must include two copies).
- Length and formatting: Essay must be between 750 and 1750 words using 12 font Times New Roman, double-spaced, standard margins.
- Bibliography: References must include at least four sources; extra consideration given to primary sources. High quality, reliable internet sources are acceptable.
- Entry must be original work. By submitting an entry, the student is confirming that the work is original.
- Classroom assignments are acceptable entries, provided they meet the contest rules.
- Cover Sheet must include: Student’s name, home address and email, high school, grade level, and teacher’s name.

Contact Amy Ensley at amy.ensley@wilson.edu for more information.

Entries can be mailed to Hankey Center at Wilson College, 1015 Philadelphia Ave., Chambersburg, PA 17201 or emailed to hankeycenter@wilson.edu.

WWW.WILSON.EDU/ESSAYCONTEST